Karabakh Foundation Delegation Planning Visit to Dayton, Chicago, Detroit, and Louisville

Washington, D.C. July 30, 2010 A staff delegation from the Karabakh Foundation, dedicated to the culture, arts, and heritage of Azerbaijan and the Caucasus, will travel to several East Coast cities August 21-30 as part of the organization's outreach to various U.S. communities.

The Foundation is gearing up for a 2010 launch that will include a comprehensive Web site, an active grants and fellowship program, a dynamic student network, and public programs.

Residents of the abovementioned cities interested in connecting with the delegation should e-mail the Foundation at info@karabakhfoundation.org.

About the Karabakh Foundation

The Karabakh Foundation seeks to increase awareness and understanding in the United States of the cultural heritage and traditions of the country of Azerbaijan, the Caucasus area, and the Karabakh region of Azerbaijan. While coalescing significant artistic and scholarly talent, the Foundation is nurturing a new generation of artists and scholars toward important accomplishments.

The Foundation serves as a dynamic facilitator and clearinghouse raising the public profile of Azerbaijan, its Karabakh region, and the Caucasus region in general. Main activities include preserving and disseminating cultural content via archival collecting, public programs, publications, exhibitions, speaking forums, international collaborations, scholarly exchange, artistic sponsorship, and related venues.

Foundation support comes primarily from Khazar University, the first private university in Azerbaijan and one of the country's leading institutions of higher learning. Additional information about the Karabakh Foundation may be found at www.karabakhfoundation.org.
